Brothers,

As a member of the Knights of Columbus, you know that Fr. McGivney's vision was to protect, strengthen and assist Catholic families. In keeping with his vision, The Abbate Agency is dedicated to providing the highest level of service to our clients and our Catholic families. Our small, family-run agency has grown to be one of the top agencies in the Knights of Columbus because we focus on our client's best interest and provide faith-based solutions.

During this pandemic, the Knights of Columbus is growing and adapting technology to ensure service to our clients. Of course, we always prefer to meet with our clients face-to-face, but we know that a virtual presence gives our clients direct access to our products and services during their time of need. These meetings have been working well and has even earned us the best possible "Thank You" by way of client referrals.

We are honored that our hard work and dedication has been recognized by Supreme. The Abbate Agency is expanding and now provides this same quality of care to all of Virginia, West Virginia and parts of Maryland. To ensure the highest level of quality and customer service, your area council will be supported by a dedicated Field Agent and a regional team committed to your financial success. Our family is here to support your family. We have and will be expanding our offices and personnel, both office staff and Field Agents, to better improve your care.

During our time of expansion, we will be reaching out and gladly accepting feedback and recommendations as to better serve you and your community. Remember that Rome was not built in a day, so as we move forward with the expansion of our agency, have patience. Our Field Agents have been with us since the beginning, providing continuity with your councils but more importantly within your family.

If you have any questions, or would like additional information, please email me at Robert.Abbate@kofc.org or my Assistant General Agent (AGA), Nick Abbate at Nick.Abbate@kofc.org. Our vision has always been family comes first ... welcome to the family!

Vivat Jesus!
